CEDAC
Creative educators of digital arts & culture

Issue No: 3

THE CEDAC NEWSLETTER

Target Groups:

Seniors living in rural areas and small towns

Trainers and educators working in cultural institutions

The CEDAC project aims to offer to educators from cultural institutions an innovative training programme which will motivate seniors:

- to enter the digital world safely,
- to improve their creativity skills
- to discover the culture and art resources and events online

CEDAC partners have developed:

1. Workshops for seniors concentrate on:

- Taking and editing photos,
- Brain training,
- Creative cooking,
- Listening to the music,
- Entertainment,
- Artists from partners' countries,
  - Museums,
    - European traditions,
      - Video recording,
    - Soft skills including digital communication
  - and others.

2. Materials for teachers – presentations for future online courses aim to:

- Critical thinking,
- Advanced communication skills,
- How to teach online,
- How to teach creatively,
- e-Learning and communication skills,
- Tools and resources for online communication
- and others.

Teachers and experts from all partners countries met in Portugal (11-15/7/2022) to participate in a training activity. Time was spent mainly presenting all materials prepared for seniors and teachers.

Now we will concentrate on developing online courses to have a common platform for all prepared materials that helps teachers lead courses for seniors.

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union
